GUARDRAILS

STOPLIGHT GUIDE

SCAN FOR THE FULL COURSE

SE Students wants every leader to promote safety and awareness in tough conversations. Ministry is messy and these topics can feel intimidating—here are the guidelines for how to best proceed.

GREEN LIGHT

"Green means go."

You've got this. You have both the Sword and the Spirit.

- Family problems
- Relational problems
- Homesickness
- Heartfelt confessions
- Questions about dating & sex
- Church & theological questions

YELLOW LIGHT

"Proceed with caution."

Mention it to a staff member for coaching.

- Bullying
- Pornography
- Eating disorders
- Drugs or alcohol
- Anxiety or depression
- Engagement in sexual activity
- Gender & sexual identity questions

RED LIGHT

"Stop and get help."

Get a staff member and bring them into the conversation.

- Self-injury
- Hearing voices / hallucinations
- Sexual & physical abuse reported
- Suicidal / homicidal thoughts (threats to harm)

STUDENT TO LEADER: IN PERSON

Southeast takes seriously the responsibility of keeping our people safe. Here are some best practices when interacting with students in person.

PROGRAMMING

- Keep students in programming. We want all students in the student room. If a student wants to talk one-on-one, wait until after program and groups end, and meet in a public area where you are visible to others.
- Appropriate interactions. Appropriate touches with a student: handshakes, high-fives, and side hugs.
- When a student's ride is late. Never leave a student waiting alone—wait with two adults. If you have a parent or guardian's permission to drive a student home, bring another cleared adult.

COUNSELING

- Counsel same gender. If a student of the opposite gender comes to you for counsel, connect them with a leader of the same gender.
- Be visible. Meet in a public area where you are visible to other people. Never meet in private.
- Review the Counseling Spotlight. When counseling a student, refer to the Stoplight Guide on how to best proceed in conversation.

OUTSIDE OF CHURCH

- Pair up with another leader. When planning an outside activity with students, always include another cleared adult and stay within the 1:25 student/leader ratio.
- Transporting students. Never give a student a ride home unless you have another cleared leader in the vehicle and a parent's or guardian's approval.
- Communicating digitally. When texting or using social media with students, follow the Digital Communication Safety Guardrails on the next page.

STUDENT TO LEADER: ONLINE

When it comes to digital interactions, the following are some best practices to promote safety and create a healthy environment between leaders and students.

TALK TO PARENTS FIRST

Make parents and guardians fully aware of all the digital methods that will be used to communicate with students for ministry purposes.

KEEP IT PLURAL

Want to let an absent student know they were missed, or tell someone you're proud of them? Use plural pronouns instead of singular ones. Rather than "I missed you," say "We missed you."

ADD A CO-LEADER

Adding another leader helps with accountability. Group texting is the preference for all digital communication. At no time should one-on-one video communication take place between a student and leader.

COMMUNICATION LIMITS

Most conversations can wait until the next day—a healthy boundary. Use "scheduled sending" for messages composed outside acceptable hours (e.g. write a message at 9:30 p.m. and schedule it to go out at 7:00 a.m. the next day).

TRACEABLE COMMUNICATION

Apps with a "self-destruct mode" can create dangers when adults use them to communicate with minors. To be above reproach, only communicate with students in ways that are traceable. Never delete a conversation with a student.

HIGH CALLING

LEADER COMMITMENT

Serving with minors is a trusted leadership role. The following commitments define who we commit to be and what we commit to do so students are discipled, cared for, and protected with integrity.

WHAT WE COMMIT TO BE

01	Christ Follower	I acknowledge Jesus Christ as Lord and will keep growing through the Bible, prayer, worship, and community in the life of the church.
02	Representative	I represent Jesus, Southeast Christian Church, Southeast Students and will support the church's mission, beliefs, leadership, and unity.
03	Above Reproach	I will live with integrity in my words, actions, relationships, habits, and online presence, and will not knowingly misrepresent Jesus or Southeast.
04	Trustworthy	I will use my influence to protect, encourage, and disciple students—never to manipulate, isolate, shame, favor, or create inappropriate dependence.
05	Teachable	I will receive coaching, correction, and direction with humility. Teachability is part of faithful leadership.
06	Disciple-Maker	This is more than a weekly program. I will pray for students, help them feel known, and point them to Jesus and their next steps of faith.
07	Integrity	If my ability to lead with integrity becomes compromised, I will speak with Staff and, if needed, step back from serving.
08	Conflict Resolution	Following Matthew 18:15-17, I will handle conflict with humility—going directly to the person, avoiding gossip, pursuing reconciliation, and involving the right leaders when needed.

WHAT WE COMMIT TO DO

01	Serve Faithfully	I will serve the full ministry year—August through July—and participate in weekly gatherings, leader trainings, and all required ministry rhythms.
02	Consistent	I will be on time, prepared, and engaged when serving. Consistency builds trust with students, families, leaders, and staff.
03	Communicate	If I need to miss a gathering, event, or serving commitment, I will tell my co-leaders and Staff as early as possible.
04	Be a Teammate	I will work with co-leaders, campus staff, parents, and SE Students leadership in a way that is clear, cooperative, and aligned.
05	Safety Guidelines	I will follow all Southeast and Southeast Students safety policies and boundaries at all times, including:

- Never being alone with a student in a private or isolated setting.
- Appropriate physical, emotional, spiritual, relational, and digital boundaries.
- Communicating with students only in transparent and approved ways.
- Reporting concerns, disclosures, or unsafe situations to Staff immediately.

AGREEMENT

By signing, I confirm I have read, understand, and agree to these commitments as a leader with Southeast Students. Failure to follow these commitments may result in being paused or removed from serving. If I have questions or cannot agree to any commitment, I will speak with Staff before serving.

SPIRITUAL REALITY

HOW DO YOU SEE THE WORLD? · 2 WEEKS · MSM + HSM

SERIES OVERVIEW

SPIRITUAL REALITY

How do you see the world? What's the point of following Jesus? What does God actually want from us? In a world full of competing voices, rules, and expectations, it's easy to lose sight of what matters most. In this series, students will explore the spiritual reality we find when we open God's Word. Just like VR changes what you see and experience, the Bible helps us see God's reality. And in the Bible, we see a call to believe in Jesus and love others as He commanded. Through reading the letters John wrote, we'll discover that following Jesus isn't just about knowing the right answers or following a list of rules—it's about knowing God, walking as Jesus walked, and allowing His love to change the way we treat others.

Series anchor text: 1 John 3:23

Series goal: Students will understand the spiritual reality that following Jesus means loving Him and loving others.

HEART OF WORSHIP

THIS IS YOUR SPIRITUAL ACT OF WORSHIP · 6 WEEKS

SERIES DATES _____

SERIES OVERVIEW

HEART OF WORSHIP

What does it mean to have a heart of worship? We can know the songs, show up to church, and still find our hearts far from God. Through the book of Revelation, students will see who God is, what Jesus has done for them, and why He deserves their devotion. This series invites students to take an honest look at their hearts: what they love, what they hold onto, and who they follow when life gets difficult.

Series goal: Students will grow in their love for Jesus and understand how that love shapes their worship, their choices, and their willingness to trust Him with every part of their lives.

SERIES OUTLINE

WEEK 1	Heart	Revelation 2:1-7; Mark 12:28-34
WEEK 2	Knees	Revelation 4:1-11; Isaiah 6:1-8

SERIES THREE

JOHN 3:16

IS IT REALLY THAT SIMPLE? · 3 WEEKS · MSM + HSM TOGETHER

SERIES DATES _____

SERIES OVERVIEW

JOHN 3:16

John 3:16 is one of the most familiar verses in the Bible, but it raises some of the biggest questions about Christianity. If God loves the world, why is there so much suffering? If He sent His Son, how can we know Jesus really is who He claimed to be? And what does it actually mean to believe in Him? In this series, students will explore these questions honestly, using John 3:16 as the foundation for conversations about God's love, the identity of Jesus, and the meaning of saving faith. The goal isn't to pretend every question has an easy answer, but to help students understand the gospel more deeply and build a thoughtful, confident faith in Jesus.

Series goal: Students will learn to engage honestly with difficult questions about Christianity, understand the biblical foundations of their faith, and grow in confidence that Jesus is who He says He is.

God doesn't promise a life without suffering, but He meets us in our pain and promises that suffering won't have the final word.

CALL TO ACTION

Bring your honest questions and pain to God, and choose to walk alongside someone who is hurting rather than offering easy answers.

LEADER NOTES

QUESTIONS

PERSONAL

1. When you hear the phrase "God loves the world," what does that make you think or feel?
2. Have you ever experienced something that made you question God's goodness or wonder why He would allow suffering? What questions did it raise for you?

BIBLICAL

1. Read John 11:1-44.
   - What words, ideas, or phrases stick out to you from these verses?
   - What questions do you have about these verses?
2. Reread John 11:32-36. What does this teach us about how Jesus responds to human pain?
3. Read Romans 8:18-25. Paul acknowledges that creation groans and that we experience suffering while waiting for redemption. What does this passage teach us about the brokenness of our world and the hope Christians have for the future?

APPLICABLE

1. Is there a painful experience or unanswered question that makes it difficult for you to trust God? What would it look like to bring that honestly to Him?
2. How can you respond when a friend is suffering or questioning God's goodness without minimizing their pain or pretending to have every answer?

PRAYER PROMPT

"God, I don't always understand why suffering happens or why You allow painful things in our world. Help me bring my honest questions to You. Remind me of Your character, meet me in my pain, and help me be present with others who are hurting. Give me hope in the promise that You will ultimately make all things new."

PERSONAL CHALLENGE

Take 10 minutes this week to write down an honest question you have about suffering or God's goodness. Read John 11 or Romans 8 again, noting what the passage teaches you about God and what questions remain. If the question is weighing on you, bring it to a trusted leader or mature Christian.

JOHN 3:16

02 HE SENT HIS SON

PASSAGE John 3:16-18; 1 Corinthians 15:3-8

KEY TAKEAWAY

God proved His love by sending His Son, and the resurrection is how we know Jesus is who He claimed to be.

CALL TO ACTION

Take one question you have about Jesus or His resurrection and investigate it rather than avoiding it.

LEADER NOTES

QUESTIONS

PERSONAL

1. John 3:16 says God gave His one and only Son. Why do you think God's plan centered on sending a person rather than just sending a message?
2. What evidence or information would you want to examine before believing that someone had actually risen from the dead?

BIBLICAL

1. Read John 3:16-18.
   - What words, ideas, or phrases stick out to you from these verses?
   - What questions do you have about these verses?
2. Reread John 3:16. Why is it significant that Christianity is built around what God has done by sending His Son, rather than simply giving people advice about how to live?
3. Read 1 Corinthians 15:3-8. Paul describes Jesus' death, burial, resurrection, and appearances to witnesses.
   - What claims does Paul make about what happened to Jesus?
   - Why do you think the resurrection was so important to the message he preached?

APPLICABLE

1. What question about Jesus, the Bible's reliability, or the resurrection would you most like to have answered? Why is that question important to you?
2. How can you investigate questions about Christianity with both intellectual honesty and an openness to what the evidence may show?

PRAYER PROMPT

"God, thank You for showing Your love by sending Jesus. Help me understand who He is and why His resurrection matters. Give me courage to ask honest questions, wisdom to examine the evidence, and humility as I continue to learn. Help me build my faith on what is true."

PERSONAL CHALLENGE

Write down one question you have about the historical Jesus or His resurrection. Investigate it using the passages from this week and a trustworthy resource on Christian history or apologetics. Record one thing you learned and one question you still have.

03 JOHN 3:16
BELIEVE IN HIM

PASSAGE John 3:16-18; Ephesians 2:1-10

KEY TAKEAWAY

We receive eternal life by God's grace through faith in Jesus, and genuine faith begins to shape how we live.

CALL TO ACTION

Examine what you're trusting in for salvation. Put your confidence in Jesus rather than _____.

LEADER NOTES

QUESTIONS

PERSONAL

1. When you hear the phrase "believe in Jesus," what do you think it means? How would you explain it to a friend?
2. Have you ever wondered whether you're really a Christian or worried that you've messed up too much for God to accept you? What makes questions about salvation difficult to work through?

BIBLICAL

1. Read John 3:16-18.
   - What words, ideas, or phrases stick out to you from these verses?
   - What questions do you have about these verses?
2. Reread John 3:16. What do you think it means to believe in Jesus rather than simply believe that He existed? What is the difference between knowing facts about Jesus and personally trusting Him?
3. Read Ephesians 2:1-10. According to Paul, what has God done for us, and how do we receive salvation?

APPLICABLE

1. When you think about your relationship with God, are you more likely to trust what Jesus has done for you or judge your standing with God by how well you've behaved? What do these passages invite you to reconsider?
2. If a friend asked you, "How can I know if I'm actually saved," how would you use John 3:16 and the other passages to help them understand grace, faith, and assurance?

PRAYER PROMPT

"God, thank You for loving me and sending Jesus so that I can have eternal life. Help me understand what it means to trust in Him. Keep me from trying to earn Your love through my performance, and help me find confidence in Your promises. Grow my faith so that the way I live reflects the trust I place in You."

PERSONAL CHALLENGE

Read John 3:16-18 and 1 John 5:11-13 again this week. Write down what these passages teach you about believing in Jesus and having eternal life. If you have questions or doubts about your salvation, bring them to a trusted Christian leader and work through them together.

A CONVERSATION ON MENTAL HEALTH · 2 WEEKS

SERIES DATES

SERIES OVERVIEW

OPEN

Does God actually hear me? Is He even real? If He is real, why does it seem like everyone I know is struggling? The mental health conversation is everywhere today—sometimes, it seems like all anyone is ever talking about.

It's easy to talk about mental health, but it's hard to be open about mental health and how it affects us. In this series, we'll search God's Word to find some people who open up about their struggles with anxiety, depression, doubt, and fear. The book of Psalms is full of people who were really, really honest about what they were going through. Each week, we'll use their honesty to challenge ourselves into opening up the conversation about the questions we actually have about God, the emotions we struggle with, and the hope we find when we bring things into the light.

Series goal: Students will engage conversations about how to look to God when things are hard and how to bring hard things into the light.

SERIES OUTLINE

WEEK 1	Anxiety & Depression	Psalm 77
WEEK 2	Doubt & Fear	Psalm 13:1-4; Psalm 27:13-14

SERIES FIVE

PORN AGAIN?

INTERNAL TRANSFORMATION + BEHAVIOR MODIFICATION = NEW CREATION · 2 WEEKS

SERIES DATES _____

SERIES OVERVIEW

PORN AGAIN?

Jesus tells Nicodemus in John 3 that we must be "BORN again," but the reality is we live in a time where the most defining reality is not being born again, but falling into porn again and again. We want to see this generation break free from strongholds, walk in freedom, and see the power Jesus has to make them into a brand new creation.

Our society is pornified. Things that were obscene years ago are just normal nowadays, and the more saturated our culture is becoming with pornography, the more it's becoming a generational stronghold. The days of just needing to have a "boys talk" don't exist anymore. One of the fastest growing demographics among new pornography users is girls age 8-14. So we want to have an honest conversation about pornography and talk about it from a Biblical worldview and Christian perspective. We know students are going to hear about it at some point, and we want them to hear what God has to say about it, not just a culture that is complacent at best but celebrating it at its worst.

If a generation is going to be freed from pornography and its influence on their life, two things need to coexist together. These are not opposing camps, but each is an essential piece to holistic change. Here's the equation: INTERNAL TRANSFORMATION + BEHAVIOR MODIFICATION = NEW CREATION.

The church struggles to bring these two together. Legalists tell people to simply "Stop It." The belief is: change their behavior and it will change their addictive habits. The truth: ask any individual who tried that and they'll tell you it was only half the battle. The challenge is that our thoughts, desires, and soul aren't being transformed.

Then there are "grace-filled" churches. They recognize we can't change our way into transformation, but often fall into a trap of merely preaching a passive grace with no real practical steps to fight the addiction. Our church loves students too much to leave them in forgiveness to fend for themselves. We long for grace to be backed up by the hard truths, alongside leaders willing to stand in the gap. This is where transformation begins.

SERIES OUTLINE

WEEK 1	Be Transformed	Romans 12:1-2; Psalm 51:10
WEEK 2	Do Not Conform	Romans 12:2; Psalm 51:10

06

Lead with grace and truth. Students who struggle here often carry shame. Your calm, unshocked response tells them it's safe to bring it into the light. Pornography is a yellow light—ask staff or team leader for coaching. #leadertip

01 PORN AGAIN? BE TRANSFORMED

PASSAGE Romans 12:1-2; Psalm 51:10

2. When was a time in your life that you realized you couldn't do something on your own? Was it easy or hard to ask for help?

BIBLICAL

1. Read Romans 12:2 again as a group.

   - Who is the only one who can truly transform us?
   - How does Romans 12:2 say that transformation takes place?
2. Read Psalm 51:10 again.
   - Who is David asking to do these two things?
   - What do you think happens if we try to do the work of changing our thinking, cleansing our desires, and aligning our spirits?

APPLICABLE

1. What happens in our fight against any sin, especially with pornography, if we don't ask God to do an inner transformation first?

> PRAYER PROMPT
>
> "God, today would you change my thinking, purify my desires, and give me a loyal spirit so that I can be who you made me to be."

PERSONAL CHALLENGE

SERIES SIX

FUELED

A STUDY OF MARK 6 · 3 WEEKS

SERIES DATES _____

SERIES OVERVIEW

FUELED

What makes you...you? What drives the way you live, the choices you make, and the way you treat the people around you? As believers in Jesus, we want the things that are true about Jesus to be true about us.

Throughout the Gospel of Mark, we see that Jesus was fueled by His identity as the beloved Son of God. Before the miracles, the teaching, or the crowds, Jesus knew who He was and whose He was. We also see him moved to action by compassion, putting aside personal comfort for the sake of others. And even in the hardest moments of life, we see Jesus made space for prayer, seeking His Father and aligning His desires with God's will.

These weren't just things Jesus believed; they were the things that fueled him on his journey from heaven to the cross and back again. In this series, we'll study three driving forces that defined Jesus' life: being a dearly loved Son, being moved with compassion for others, and being aligned with God's will through prayer.

Through moments from Jesus' life in Mark, we'll discover that following Jesus isn't just about knowing the story of his life, it's about allowing what fueled Him to be the thing that fuels us.

SERIES OUTLINE

WEEK 1	Fueled by Identity	Mark 1:9-11
WEEK 2	Fueled by Compassion	Mark 6:30-44
WEEK 3	Fueled by Prayer	Mark 14:35-40

07

Model the way. Students don't need perfection; they need people who follow Jesus with their whole life. Share where your own identity, compassion, or prayer life has been fueled—or running on empty.

1. What's in your "starter pack"? Share three to five things that would help someone get to know you if they met you for the first time.
2. What do you think makes us who we are? Is it who we spend time with, what we think, or something else?

BIBLICAL

1. Read Mark 1:9-11.
   - What stands out to you about these verses?
   - What does this passage say about Jesus' identity?
2. Jesus is God's "dearly loved son," but he still faced temptation and hard times. How do you think knowing his identity affected his actions?

2. Imagine you woke up tomorrow and you 100% believed that God's love was the truest thing about you. How would that change your day? What things would you stop doing or start doing based on your new identity?

> PRAYER PROMPT
>
> "God, help me believe your love is for me. Sometimes I feel like _____ is the truest thing about me. Help me believe that your love defines me."

PERSONAL CHALLENGE

Bonus points: challenge your small group to send a voice memo in the chat each day! "I am dearly loved by God. He has a good plan for my life, and He deeply cares about how I live."

02 FUELED BY COMPASSION

FUELED

PASSAGE Mark 6:30-44

KEY TAKEAWAY

Compassion moves us to serve others even when it's uncomfortable.

CALL TO ACTION

Do something for someone that meets a need, even if it's outside your comfort zone.

LEADER NOTES

QUESTIONS

PERSONAL

1. What's the nicest thing someone has ever done for you?
2. Think about our community. What do you think are some of the biggest needs people have?

BIBLICAL

1. Read Mark 6:30-44.
   - What stands out to you from these verses?
   - Before Jesus had compassion for the people, what were he and the disciples going to search for?
2. Why do you think Jesus set aside what he wanted and chose to teach and feed the people?
3. How does knowing Jesus was moved by compassion change how we serve other people?

APPLICABLE

1. What kinds of things keep you from caring for other people? Do you think it's easy or hard to do something for someone if you know you won't get something in return?
2. What's a kind of person or situation that "moves you to compassion"? What's a way you might be able to act on your compassion this week?

PRAYER PROMPT

"God, I want my heart to be like yours. Grow my compassion for people and open my eyes to who you would want to serve."

PERSONAL CHALLENGE

03 FUELED
FUELED BY PRAYER

PASSAGE Mark 14:35-40

KEY TAKEAWAY

Prayer fuels us to do God's will, even when it costs us something.

CALL TO ACTION

Pray! Ask God for what you need and practice submitting to his plan.

LEADER NOTES

QUESTIONS

PERSONAL

1. Have you ever asked for something you ended up getting? Have you ever asked for something you didn't end up getting?
2. When it comes to prayer, how would you describe it? What is it, and why do Christians do it?

BIBLICAL

1. Read Mark 14:35-36.
   - — What stands out to you about this passage?
   - — What is Jesus asking?
2. Now read Mark 14:37-40.

APPLICABLE

1. Have you ever cried out to God about something difficult like Jesus did? What happened?
2. This passage helps us see that through prayer we can ask God for what we need, but prayer also helps line up our will with God's will. Is it easy or hard to want the things that God wants? If you were to pray a prayer like Jesus prayed, what would it sound like? (Hint: "God, I need _____, but not my will, but yours be done.")

PRAYER PROMPT

"God, I don't always understand what you want. Help me line my heart up with yours."

PERSONAL CHALLENGE

This week, choose a need, a person, or a situation in your life and spend time asking God to help you do what He would do when it comes to that thing.
